THE steamer R. E. Lee has been thoroughly overhauled and repaired, and she now looks scrumptious.

A RESIDENT of this city informed the Marshal by letter, about the middle of last week, of the fact that a large number of hogs had been put in a lot on Dock street, below Seventh. The Marshal told the messenger who bore the letter, that quick attention should be given the matter. The hogs remained undisturbed till Saturday, when complaint was personally made to the Marshal, who promised to move them that afternoon. The fence between the hogs' lot and the complainant was not in condition to resist an effort of hogs, and as it surrounded a most promising garden, there was much anxiety. Well, on Sunday and yesterday the hogs came in, and made short work of turnips, beans, onions, corn, cabbages, radishes, &c. By his neglect of his duty when he knew it, the Marshal is chiefly responsible.

For the Post.

A Republican meeting was held in Grant Township on the 11th instant. There was a fine turnout and much enthusiasm prevailed. The following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, It being the desire of all the Republicans of New Hanover county, so far as heard from, to hold but one County Convention during the coming canvass, and whereas, it being a fact that the nomination of county officers and delegates to the Judicial District Convention can be made at one time, in one Convention; and, whereas, the people of the county, particularly the farmers, will be greatly relieved by having but one Convention; therefore, we, the Republicans, of Grant Township, do

Resolved, That we earnestly request the members of the Republican County Executive Committee of New Hanover county to call the next County Convention to make the above nominations in time to allow the delegates chosen to the District Convention to attend said Conventions when called by the respective District Executive Committees. The call for said County Convention, by said Executive Committee not to be later than the 3rd day of June, 1874.

Whereas: We, the Republicans of Grant township in mass meeting assembled, being of a sentiment that bids us extend feelings of gratitude for faithful services rendered us, do therefore

Resolved, That we hail with patriotic pride the true and faithful stewardship of Hon. James Heaton.

Resolved, That as a reward for his bold and unflinching advocacy of true Republicanism in our county and State, we cheerfully recommend him to our next County Convention as our first and last choice for the nomination of Clerk of the Superior Court.

Resolved, That it is the request of this assemblage, that all resolutions passed by this meeting, together with its proceedings, be published in the columns of the Wilmington Post.

ANDREW NIXON, Chm'n.
THOS. NIXON, Sec'y.

Our harbor is getting full of shipping.

THE Mayor will try the policemen this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

WE were pleased to see Mr. R. L. Sellars on the streets this morning.

OUR wharves for the past two days have presented quite a business aspect.

CURB STONES.—The Sch. J. C. Cottingham arrived in port yesterday, laden with curb stones for the use of the city.

G. L. MASON has been appointed Weigher and Gauger of this Port, by the Secretary of the Treasury vice, E. M. Shoemaker.

THE morning prayer meetings at the First Baptist Church have been postponed. Due notice will be given of their commencement.

SERIOUS damage has been done in our immediate section, to the vegetables and fruit trees. But little fruit, and considerable replanting it is feared will be the result.

THE young ladies and gentlemen of Front Street M. E. Sunday School, have a cravat party to-night. It is for the benefit of some charitable purpose. We wish them a pleasant time and much success.

HAS LEFT US.—The Rev. Mark S. Gross, formerly of St. Thomas' Church, in this city, has assumed the pastorate of St. John's Catholic Church, Raleigh. Much regret is felt by the congregation of St. Thomas' Church at his departure.

BEFORE Commissioner Cassiday:—Antonio Freeman, the deserter from the Courier was again tried this morning, for another offence, and for the second time committed to jail in default of $500 bail, to stand trial before the United States District Court.

HIGH WATER.—Owing to the high water in the Cape Fear, the steamers plying between Fayetteville and this city cannot land at some sixteen of the landings, neither to take on or put off freight—at some of them they cannot get within half a mile. At Fayetteville the water is said to have risen 55 or 60 feet.

SCHOOL CENSUS.—No. of children listed up to April 14th, 1874:
White males, 219
" females, 223
Colored males, 228
" females, 231
Total, 901

"GOOD BYE JOHN."—We regret very much that the steam dredge, that has been so successfully at work for a short time in our river will be called away. It has accomplished much for the short time it has been at work, and we sincerely trust that some arrangement may be effected, whereby the dredge can be recalled and operations once more begun.

LECTURE TO-NIGHT.—For the last time we say to our readers, don't fail to go and hear the celebrated blind preacher and poet, Rev. W. H. Milburn, deliver his lecture to-night: "What a Blind man saw in England." For the honor of our fair city let us turn out en masse, as it will not only be paying a mark of hospitality and appreciation, but at the same time it will be giving aid to the Wilmington Library Association. Then all bear in mind the lecture, subject, object, time and place.

WHAT'S THAT?—Observing a crowd assembled on North Water street this morning, and being in search of items, or something of that kind to regale our readers with, at a break neck pace we started (be it understood our life is insured for several thousand) to enquire the cause, although with a presentiment that some one had cut their throat, to give our coroner a job, or that a big fight was progressing, and that we might have a long, wished for opportunity to display our muscular power, in the way of protecting our weak but mighty patrons police from rough usage; but judge of our surprise when we arrived on the scene, to find no resemblance of a fight, or any thing of the kind, but just simply a little quadruped called, in reply to our question, "What's that?" an otter. Only this and nothing more.

Mayor's Court.

His Honor W. P. CANADAY, Mayor, presiding.

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

C. McHenry (the corn doctor) and Wm. Thomas Cutlar, were charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct on the streets. They were each fined $20 and costs or 30 days work on the streets. Matilda Fennell and Sophia Merrick, charged with fighting, were fined $10 and costs each, or 20 days on the streets.

Two other cases were brought up, but judgment was suspended.

VERGIN DIP.—The first Virginia Dip, of the season was sold in this Market to-day; a lot of 19 bbls, bringing $3.50 per bbl, this being 50 cents per bbl less than last year's price.

DIED.—Betsy McRee, the colored woman who was so badly burned near the Union Depot and subsequently taken to the Poor House, some day's ago, died this morning.

For the Post.

THE Jail.—Sunday. A jail is never an inviting place. The great thick walls, the great iron bars, the great creaking doors, and the dingy windows have not a homelike appearance, and a very brief visit is usually as long a time as one naturally likes to stop in such a place. How, then, of the poor fellows who are compelled to stop there week after week, and month after month, with naught to comfort them but their own meditations, which often is poor comfort. Surely it is punishment. But for an account of a visit to our own, that is the jail, in this city, Wilmington, like most other cities, has a jail. It would be a good thing if the state of morals were such that there would be no need of one among us. A good thing for all, except "the legal limbo," whose bread and butter come largely through the existence of such places; but I have no doubt even they would gladly take the chance of securing other things if the evil could be done away with. But shed no tears, the time is not yet. We have a jail, and what is worse, many in it for numerous crimes, the most of whom we saw yesterday.

Some good spirit prompted several of the well-disposed of our community to go to our prison yesterday for missionary purposes. Mr. Blake, Jr., several ladies and the Rev. Mr. Parkinson, who has so recently come to our city, to organize a church, were the parties. The hour was about 2 p. m. Mr. Nash, the keeper of the place, jailor, I suppose, kindly greeted the company, and soon had the prisoners in array to hear what the good people had to say. Mr. Blake conducted the opening exercises, except the prayer, which was offered by Mr. Parkinson, and afterwards read a portion of Scripture, and made remarks upon the same. We were struck with the attention paid by the prisoners. Every eye and ear was open to get and understand each word. Mr. Blake talked about twenty minutes to the poor creatures, after which, by request of the prisoners, Mr. Parkinson, occupied about the same time. What was said evidently was appreciated by the incarcerated company. The tear was on almost every cheek, and the sob told plainly the soul's bitter feeling: while it proved to all what a great writer has said, "There is a soft place even in the hardest heart." The gentlemen, through the ladies, distributed tracts, and spoke some kind words to the men, which were eagerly listened to and deeply appreciated by all. It was evidently a feast to the prisoners, and when the parting time came, the visitors were earnestly asked to come again.

We were glad we chanced to see this, and glad to give our readers this brief account of it. Not that it is the first work of the kind that has been done, for Mr. Blake and others have been in frequently upon the same mission, but to show those who are so kind as to do this work that their labor is appreciated by all. It was evidently a feast to the prisoners, and when the parting time came, the visitors were earnestly asked to come again.

ILLINOIS. CHICAGO, April 14. A regular meeting of the Chicago Presbytery found charges of heresy preferred against Professor David Swing, Pastor of the 4th Presbyterian Church of this city and one of the editors of the "Alliance." The charges are very voluminous, twenty-five different specifications being included in one article alone.

They were referred to a committee for consideration, and are to be presented to Professor Swing if found to contain sufficient grounds upon which to base a case. It is thought the case will come up for trial before this meeting of the Presbytery. It will be sharply contested and the probability is it will be carried to a higher ecclesiastical court.

The case excites great interest in church circles on account of the high standing, not only of the accused, but of his clerical brethren, who have been most prominent in bringing the case before the tribunal of the church.

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH.

NEW YORK.

New York, April 14.

Capt. Lamarie, of the Europe, states that his vessel was recently lengthened, refitted and supplied with new boilers and machinery. This was her fifth voyage since she was repaired. While coming out of Havre she scraped her bottom against some stones, but I did not believe that the damage, if any, was of a very serious character. I was confirmed in my impressions when I reached Brest two days afterwards, and found the vessel all right. On the third day at sea the chief mate reported to me that he observed considerable water coming into the engine room and had no idea where it came from, except from the ship's bottom.

I found on investigation that it was there that the leak had occurred, and the pumps were vigorously applied, but without avail, as the water was passing in more rapidly than we could discharge it. On the following day we sighted the Greece, when we fired a gun and put up signals of distress. The Greece came up and lowered her boats, and in two hours the passengers and crew were transferred from the Europe. The transfer was made with very little confusion, and the women and children were first saved. The boats belonging to the Greece were first lowered in the water, and as soon as we got on board the Greece Mr. Breck, first officer of the latter took possession of the Europe, but returned after a while to the Greece. They only saved the mails and made no attempt to save the valuables in the same room. The vessels were near each other for twelve hours and no disposition was shown to save the cargo. It could have been done, though the sea was very heavy at the time. The following morning Mr. Buch and those who volunteered to take charge of the Europe, came on deck to take the boats to proceed to our ship. I attempted to get into one of the boats to resume control of my vessel, but I was pushed back and would not be permitted to go on board of her.

The officers of the Greece behaved in a most infamous manner. We saved the mails, but they would not allow us to save the baggage.

The Captain of the Greece promised to allow me to go on board next morning, but did not do so. Capt. Lamarie did not change his clothes after getting on board the Greece, not being willing to accept any courtesies after the manner in which the officers of the Greece had acted. He attributes the leak to disarrangement of the plates.

Captain Thomas, of the Greece, denies very emphatically the statement that the French Captain was in any way hindered from returning on board his ship. The matter is likely to come under investigation ere long.

The upper house of Reichsrath, to-day, passed ecclesiastical bills, whereupon the Bishops withdrew in a body.

LONDON, April 14.

The Queen of Fleet from Darien arrived at Liverpool in a leaky condition, with her boats washed away. She experienced a heavy gale.

The Famine in India.

The reports from India are not hopeful, says the New York Sun, and the gloomy prospect can no longer be denied. Up to March 1 the sum of $12,500,000 had been expended on the famine, and the expenditure by Oct. 1 will amount to $75,000,000. And yet money many thousands must die in the next few months. The Viceroy has not been willing to spend enough to perfect the means of transportation; and he has been too hard a task master in exacting so rigorous a labor test. Women and children are forced to shovel earth in rather a purposeless way before any food will be given them. The men are paid four and a quarter cents a day for this labor and the women are paid even less. At the present price of rice this compels them to live on two-thirds the quantity of rice furnished to convicts. But after the work is done the food is not always on hand and so the toll may be in vain. Of the 300,000 persons now employed on the relief works, one half will perish from disease in the course of the summer. They are obliged to camp out in the open country, where dysentery, cholera, rheumatism, and low fevers make sad havoc in their numbers. During June and July the suffering in Bengal will be the most intense, but the distress will not be over until October, as the rice which is harvested in August cannot be eaten for fifty days afterward. It is too fresh and green at first, and causes sickness and disease. In a portion of the Tirhoot alone, one of the famine counties, in the middle of February there were 85,000 men, women, and children straggling on the roads in search of food and government aid. Deaths from starvation had already commenced, and as the season advances the mortality will increase at a terrible rate. The Governor-General of Bengal, Sir George Campbell, was quite right in his apprehensions. The Viceroy has shown himself unequal to the emergency.

A Hard Joke on the Olathe Fortune Hunters.

On last Tuesday the Times published an extra containing telegrams from the Louisville lottery, announcing the numbers of the tickets drawing the capital prizes. Some of these extras found their way to Olathe, Kansas. There some wicked wag, remembering that the following day was All Fools' day, conceived the idea of playing a practical joke on the devotees of Fortune of that burg who were holding tickets in the Louisville lottery. He took a copy of the Times extra to the printing office and had a large number struck off, adding the numbers to the coupons held in Olathe. These were distributed through the town. The number 3,028 was published as drawing the $75,000 prize. This ticket was held by a club of ten persons. It was soon discovered by one of those interested; the coupon was brought forth, and, mirabile dictu, there was the No. 3,028 as drawing $75,000. The club was immediately called together. The scene can better be imagined than described. Each member supposed himself the possessor of $75,000 (not trifling sum these hard times.) They laughed, almost cried. They shook hands and embraced each other. They began speculating as to what use they should put their suddenly acquired wealth. Some proposed to erect elegant mansions; others would take a trip to Europe. Visions of luxury and ease danced before them, and just while in the midst of their rejoicing and hilarity an unfeeling wretch shouted, "April fool! April fool!" The effect beggars description. Indescribable blankness sat upon every countenance. From the mountain top of worldly honor and bliss at one dash they fell into the valley of hopeless poverty.

Organize.

The time has about arrived when the Republican party should begin to organize for the coming campaign. The movement should begin in townships, which should assemble and prepare for the County Conventions. There ought not to be a township in the State which should be unprepared two weeks hence. The Executive Committees of the counties should see to it that there is a delegation from each county for the various conventions which will in a short while assemble.

The opposition is already moving for this purpose. In several counties of this Congressional District conventions have been held and delegates appointed. They have set an example in this respect which it behooves us to speedily follow.

In those counties which are hopelessly Democratic there should be a consultation in our party, which will look to the bringing out of our entire effective strength, and to taking advantage of any dissensions among our opponents. Because in those very counties there has heretofore been a deficit in our real strength, and care should be taken that those votes which may be lost in the county should count in the elections which we have a reasonable hope to carry. The Democrats have no hope of carrying New Hanover county, but their votes here, if substracted from the returns, would elect every Republican candidate who is voted for in the county. So minorities should never despair.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Washington News Gossip.—Judge Settle at the White House.—North Carolina Politics at the National Capital.—Col. Thomas B. Keogh, State Executive Committee—Civil Rights Bill, Etc., Etc.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 11, '74.
Judge Settle arrived in the city yesterday, and is quartered at the Ebbitt House. He had a long interview with the President this morning, and dined with the Presidential household in the evening.

Col. Waddell has returned from Wilmington, where he has been sojourning for a few days. He looks bright and cheerful, and no doubt feels safe for a seat in the next Congress.

General Rutherford, the Third Auditor of the Treasury, one of the popular and efficient officers of the Department, has gone to his home, in Wilmington, on a brief furlough.

NORTH CAROLINA POLITICS AT THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

The old North State will be the first of the Southern States to cast her vote this year. Of course, there is a national interest in her. The question that will interest the South now is the absorbing one of finance. I made some allusion in my last letter as to the position of Judge Merrimon, your Senator, who had been the only Southern Senator that had taken a decided and prominent part in the tedious debate that has occupied the time of the Senate this year. I may now reiterate that your Senator is regarded as the father of the finance bill, just passed the Senate, and in the House awaiting action. The State of North Carolina has achieved much renown, through Judge Merrimon in this debate, and he in return is receiving "Hot shot and cold steel" from the anti-inflationists.

The selection of Colonel Thomas B. Keogh, for Chairman of the Republican Executive Committee of State, is received here by the Republicans with much favor. Colonel Keogh is regarded as a fit and proper person for the discharge of the duties of the station, in which he is placed by his conferees. A better selection could not be made, is the general sentiment of all who desire the success of the party in August. The anti-administration folks are not so glad to hear that Colonel Thomas Keogh is to be the Executive Officer of the Republican Campaign Committee. No man in the State is more favorable with them, personally, than he, but politically, they dread his power and influence and rare Executive ability. I have heard many enquiries to-day in regard to your nomination for Superintendent of Public Instruction—Mr. Purnell. I told all who asked that Mr. Purnell was a young lawyer of ability, standing and high personal character, earnest, solid and progressive, and was the kind of material that North Carolina put forward for representatives in her affairs. His nomination has somewhat confounded the Democracy. The question is, who shall they nominate? With them it is no matter who, but what can be done to beat the Republicans.

That your readers may know that others think of your State, and some of the prominent men in your party, I send you the following letter from the pen of Piedmont, the Washington news gossip for the Harrisburg (Pa.) National Progress:

PEN PORTRAITS OF DISTINGUISHED SOUTHERNERS—HON. SAMUEL F. PHILLIPS.

North Carolina was the first State to secede from the Union. It was the first North Carolina, so goes the Union. Never since the formation of the Union was so much interest manifested in the old North State, than was that of 1872. "from the far North, where mercury freezes, to our sunny South, where ether boils," North Carolina, from the date of Mr. Greeley's nomination had every eye turned to her. What citizen will fail to remember the contest of 1872.

On the 5th day of August the election for Governor and State officers took place, and so very sanguine of success were the democracy that they claimed a victory, and their papers throughout the country said veni vidi vici, the cannons pealed forth; far was burned: processions formed and marched; orators of democratic faith and instinct opened their mouths to show forth their praises. "North Carolina has been redeemed, and as North Carolina goes so goes the Union." Thus it was that the democracy gained a great victory; but it was on paper, and it only lasted a few days, and whatever comfort the democrats derived out of it they were cheerfully allowed it by their generous Republican friends. In a few days after all the democratic demonstrations were over. Calm and cool as is the man, Hon. Samuel F. Phillips, who was chairman of the State Republican Executive Committee, announced that Governor Caldwell had been elected Governor, and the State ticket was successful. Mr. Phillips is now Solicitor General, and for the present residing in Washington City. He is a Southerner by education and training, from early years, although born in the State of New York. I venture the assertion that no man living is more honored by the pure friendship of more men of position, station and letters than Mr. Phillips. He occupies a position in North Carolina that is enough to satisfy the ambition of any man. From the seaboard to the mountain his name is a treasure. Mr. Phillips, when the war broke out, very naturally threw the weight of his power and influence with his people. With them, their cause and their struggle he labored earnestly until the struggle ended. In 1868 he gave his vote for the great elective ticket, and always been a supporter of the administration; being enthusiastic in his denunciations of the outrages and dastardly work of the secret oath bound society, called ku klux, known in North Carolina as the Invisible Empire. In 1870, at the earnest and unanimous request of the North Carolina Republican Convention assembled at Raleigh, Mr. Phillips accepted the nomination on the ticket as a candidate for Attorney General. In this election there was 170,166 votes cast; he was beaten by his competitor, Hon. W. Shipp, by a majority of 4,088. The entire Republican ticket was overwhelmingly defeated in this election, which will long be remembered as the year of terror and scourging for Republicans, in fact the election was conducted by the ku klux who carried things their own way. Two years afterwards the Republicans in a fair election carried the State, against convention, as they did in 1872, first for Caldwell against Merrimon; then for Grant against Greeley. North Carolina is entitled to a great deal of praise for sounding the first gun for Grant and Wilson, and among the names of her illustrious citizens that contributed largely to that success and victory, none deserve more mention than Hon. Samuel F. Phillips.

In paying this tribute of respect to Mr. Phillips, I shall not forget the names of other native North Carolinians whose brilliant speeches and brave words in the famous campaign have made them dearer and nearer to the hearts of the loyal people of the old North State. It was the eloquence of Settle, Barringer, Dockery, Irwin, Boyd, Caldwell, Toole, Dick, and other natives with Mr. Phillips, and our citizens from other States—Rutherford, Abbott, French, Keogh, Ball and others—that gave the victory to the party of Civil Liberty and Equal Rights before the law.

Mr. Phillips is one of the leading lawyers of the country. He stands shoulder to shoulder with the legal giants of his age and day; and in addition to being a lawyer of great ability he is a man of letters. His pen and voice have done much to prepare the people of his State to meet the new order of things; and aside from the Enforcement Act, nothing aided more in bringing peace and quiet than his appeals and arguments to the people of North Carolina.

Mr. Phillips, I would judge, is about in what we call the prime and vigor of life, and is a most industrious man, of solid temperate habits, and of the strictest business qualifications. Since he has been in Washington a new and valuable influence has been given to Southerners. No one will doubt but what there has been a falling off in point of ability in Southern men who have been tendered positions under the Federal Government since the Reconstruction. The reason of this is obvious. Men of character and ability, who had the disposition to join the Republican party from the South, had not the moral courage, and in many of the States the party was without leadership, such as it needed in the South. North Carolina has been peculiarly fortunate in this regard, for it is true that from the very close of the war, she has contributed some of her ablest and purest citizens to the Republican cause. The very appearance of Mr. Phillips in the Supreme Court as Solicitor-General, and the fact of his being an Administration supporter from the South, is within itself an argument favorable to the Republican party in the eyes of discerning men of the North, who have something of an idea that the leading as well as the masses of the white Republicans in the South are a very different sort of men to what they have considered them. That it did cost such men as Orr, Alcorn, Hamilton, Phillips, Settle, Pool, and that class of men something to unite with the Republican party at the day and time they did, is certainly an established fact. They had to meet face to face that social ostracism, which in the South is more terrible than an army with banners. North Carolina has a good title in being proud of her sons, who belonging to her best families, who shared with her in the misfortune of secession, and the humiliation of defeat, laid down their arms, the sword or the pen, and joined the host that was for peace and reconciliation.

The Republican heart of the dear old commonwealth was made glad when the President, looking down amid her pines and mountains, called forth Hon. Samuel F. Phillips, one of her most deserved and illustrious citizens to the portfolio of Solicitor-General of the Department of Justice. In this act the President convinced the country that he meant to bring ability, integrity and patriotism into the positions that required these qualities for the successful discharge of the duties thereof.

THE CIVIL RIGHTS BILL.
I am creditably informed by a member of Congress high in the councils of the priests and pharisees, that there will be no more Civil Rights this session. The school clause has eternally damned the bill. Shortly after Mr. Sumner's death it was said that his last words as uttered to Judge Hoar, would prove sufficient within itself to pass the bill. This was a very eloquent statement, but it is far from being true, there is no more chance for the passage of the bill this Congress than there is for the passage of the Stevens Confiscation bill. The Judiciary Committee have the bill in their hands, and there they intend to keep it until late in the session, too late to get it through. So farewell Brother Watkins.

Thursday is Emancipation Day in the District, and a big time with the colored people is looked for.

CYRUS.
The insignificance of human life compared with a few cents a day added to or taken from the pay of a rolling-mill laborer was illustrated recently at Indianapolis. Fifteen hands at the Capital City Rolling Mills struck, and their places were filled by colored men. Shortly after midnight the fires were started under the boilers, and a few hours later the engineers came along, tested the water-gauges, and found no water. He was about to start the pumps when he discovered that the boilers had been tapped and were perfectly dry. Had he not made the discovery in time the mill would have been blown to atoms, and every person in it killed to a certainty. It is not wonderful that strikers, no matter where or what their provocation, meet with little public sympathy when such atrocities are meditated by some of them. The cause of the working man is incalculably injured by the frequent discovery of such desperate efforts at revenge.—Chicago Tribune.

Charlotte invested about $5000 in the Kentucky lottery, and got not a red in the way of prizes.

TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!
Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.
By consolidation and construction, a road
has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St.
Louis, "the future great City of the world."
This line, the
ST. LOUIS & SOUTHEASTERN RAIL-WAY,
has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious
day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air-brake.
It is positively the only line running
Pullman Palace Drawing-Room Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or equipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that
The "St. Louis & Southeastern"
is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas,
and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.
You can secure the cheapest rates for yourself and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to C. S. BAR-KETT, Southern Passenger Agent, Postoffice Box 242, Chattanooga Tenn., or to the Prospectus for 1874—Seventy-seventh year

THE ALDINE
An Illustrated Monthly journal, universally admitted to be the handsomest Periodical in the World. A Representative and Champion
of American Taste.
Not for Sale in Book or Music Stores

THE ALDINE while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light and graceful literature; and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value
and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar character, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quality of fine paper
and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost; and then, there are the chromos, besides!

ART DEPARTMENT, 1874.
The illustrations of THE ALDINE have won a world-wide reputation, and in the art centres of Europe it is an admitted fact that its wood cuts are examples of unsurpassed perfection ever attained. The common prejudice in favor of "steel plates," is rapidly yielding to a more educated and discriminating taste which recognizes the advantages of superior artistic quality with greater facility of production. The woodcuts of THE ALDINE possess all the accuracy and elaborate finish of the most costly steel plate, while they afford a better rendering of the original.

To fully realize the wonderful work which THE ALDINE is doing for the cause of art culture in America, it is necessary to consider the cost to the people of any other decent representations of the productions of great painters.
In addition to designs by the members of the National Academy, and other noted American artists, THE ALDINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success and greatest general interest. Thus the subscribers to THE ALDINE are enabled to enjoy in their own homes the pleasure
and refining influences of true art.
The quarterly tinted plates of 1874 will be by Thos. Moran and J. D. Woodward.
The Christmas issue for 1874 will contain special designs appropriate to the season,
by our best artists, and will surpass in attraction any of its predecessors.

PREMIUM FOR 1874.
Every subscriber to THE ALDINE for the year 1874 will receive a pair of chromo-grams. The original pictures were painted in oil
by the publishers of THE ALDINE, by Thomas Moran, whose great Colorado pictures were purchased by Congress for ten thousand dollars. The subjects were chosen to represent The East, and The West. One picture was in the White Mountains New Hampshire the other gives the CHIEFS of Green River, Wyoming Territory. The difference in the nature of the scenes themselves in a pleasing contrast, and affords a good display of the artist's scope and coloring. The chromo-grams are each worked from thirty distinct plates,
and are in size (12 x 10) and appearance exact fac-similes of the originals. The presentation of a worthy example of the highest landscape painting to the subscribers of THE ALDINE was a bold but peculiarly happy idea, and its successful realization is attested by the following testimonial, over the signature of Mr. Moran himself.
NEWARK, N. J., Sept 20th,
Messrs. JAMES SUTTON & Co., Gentlemen,—I am delighted with proofs of the color of your chromos. They wonderfully successfully represent the originals, and the mechanical process of the original paintings.
Very respectfully,
THOS. MORAN.
(Signed.) These chromos are in every respect American.
They are by an original American process,
with material of American manufacture,
from designs of American scenery, by an American painter, and presented to subscribers to the first successful American Art Journal. It is the best because all this they will certainly possess an interest no foreign production can inspire, and neither are they any the worse if by reason of peculiar activities of production they cost the publishers only a trifle, while equal in every respect to other chromos that are sold singly for double the subscription price of THE ALDINE.
Persons of taste will prize these pictures for themselves—not for the price they give for did not cost, and will appreciate the enterprise that renders their distribution possible.
If any subscribers should indicate a preference for a figure subject, the publishers will send "Thoughts of Home," a new and beautiful chromo, 12 x 20 inches, representing a little Italian exile whose speaking eyes betray the longings of his heart.
TERMS.
$5 per annum, in advance, with Oil
Chromos free.
For 50 Cents Extra, the chromos will be sent mounted, varnished, and prepaid
by mail.
THE ALDINE will, hereafter, be obtainable only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rate; cash for subscriptions must be sent to the publishers direct, or handed to the local canvasser, without responsibility to the publishers, except in cases where the certificate is given, bearing the facsimile signature of JAMES SUTTON & Co.

CANVASSERS WANTED.
Any person wishing to act permanently as a local canvasser will receive full and prompt information by applying to JAMES SUTTON & Co., Publishers,
58 MAIDEN LANE, NEW YORK.

THE SUN.
WEEKLY, SEMI-WEEKLY, AND
DAILY.
THE WEEKLY SUN is too widely known
to require any extended recommendation,
but the reasons which have already given it fifty thousand subscribers, and which we hope, give it many thousands more
are briefly as follows.
It is a first rate newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in it, condensed when unimportant, at full length when a moment, and always presented in a clear intelligible, and interesting manner.
It is a first rate family paper, full of entertaining and instructive reading of every kind, but containing nothing that can offend the most delicate and reticent taste.
It is a first rate story paper. The best tales and romances of current literature are carefully selected and legibly printed in its pages.
It is a first rate agricultural paper. The most fresh and instructive articles on agriculture are to be found in its columns.
It is an independent political paper belonging to no party and wearing no color.
It fights for principle, and for the election of the best men to office. It especially devotes its energies to the exposure of a few great corruptions that now weaken and disgrace our country and threaten to undermine republican institutions altogether. It has no fear of knaves, and asks no favors
from their supporters.
It reports the fashions for the ladies and
the markets for the men, especially the cattle markets, to which it pays particular attention.
Finally, it is the cheapest paper published.
One dollar a year will secure it for any subscriber. It is not necessary to get up a club in order to have THE WEEKLY SUN at this rate. Any one who sends a single dollar will get the paper for a year.
We have no traveling agents.

THE WEEKLY SUN.—Eight pages, fifty six columns. Only $1 a year. No discounts for this rate.
THE SEMI-WEEKLY SUN.—Same size
as the Daily Sun. $2 00 a year. A discount of 20 per cent. to clubs of 10 or over.
THE DAILY SUN.—A large four page newspaper of twenty eight columns. Daily circulation over 120,000. All the news for 2 cents. Subscription price 2 cents a month, or $6 00 a year. To clubs of 10 or over, a discount of 20 per cent. Address, nov 18-11 THE SUN, City.
